Election/Restrictions

1. The Applicants' election without traverse of Specie I, Claims 1 to 13, in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged. Claims 14 to 18 are withdrawn from consideration as being for a non-elected invention. The Applicants are requested to cancel the non-elected claims as part of a complete response to this office action. Cancellation of the non-elected claims would not preclude the later filing of a divisional application on the non-elected invention (please see 35 USC 120 and 121).

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference characters "36" and "42" have both been used to designate the layer above layer 35. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
4. Claims 5, 9 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. While there is support in the Specification for the first insulating film's thickness to be between 100Å to 200Å (Page 23 Line 20) and the second insulating film's thickness to be between 200Å to 400Å (Page 23 Line 23), there is no support these thickness ranges to be "200Å or less" or "400Å or less" respectively.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 2, 6, 8, 10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ohshima et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,019,527).

Ohshima et al. show all aspects of the instant invention (e.g. Figures 8) including:

- a semiconductor body 1 of a first conductivity type and first 16 and second 14 semiconductor regions of a second conductivity type
- a gate stack with a gate insulating film 3, a charge storage layer 4, a control gate 6 and a cap insulating film 7 said stack having first and second side surfaces and a top surface
- an interlayer insulating film 21 and contact material 24 a first insulating film 12 covering the second side surface and top surface
- a second insulating film 11 formed on said first side surface and said contact material having a side surface in contact with the second insulating film and part of the side surface extends over the cap insulating film

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 3 to 5, 7, 9, 11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ohshima et al. and Havemann (U.S. Patent No. 5,482,894).

Ohshima et al. discloses the claimed invention (Paragraph 6) except that the second insulating film being nitride-based, explicitly showing the first insulating film being made of material different from the cap insulating film and the second insulating film being the same material of the cap. Havemann teaches (Column 6 Lines 5 to 34) that the nitride-based insulating material is an equivalent structure known in the art for either cap insulating films 28 or insulating film 30. Therefore, because these two insulating films were art-recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to substitute nitride-based for oxide-based material.

Since the Applicant has not established the criticality of the thicknesses stated and since these thicknesses are in common use in similar devices in the art, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use these values in the device of Ohshima et al. Where patentability is said to be based upon particular chosen dimensions or upon another variable recited in a claim, the applicant must show that the chosen dimensions are critical. In re Woodruff, 919 F.2d 1575, 1578, 16 USPQ2d 1934, 1936 (Fed. Cir. 1990).
